While all of us will look back at Brockton High School and remember the good times, none of us will be able to recall our high school years without thinking of our great losses. The memories of sorrow and pain will be with us all forever. The many tragedies with which we have been forced to deal have left us numb with many questions about life.

The Class of 1989 wishes to dedicate our yearbook to those whose names and memories will live on in our hearts forever . . .
-Heather Hebshie

Frankie Perez

Francisco "Frankie" Perez will be remembered best for his warm friendly smile and sense of humor. He loved "rap" music, sport cars, dancing, and having fun with the kids in his neighborhood. He was loved by his friends and family and will truly be missed by those who knew him.

Amy Segal

Amy was one of the most caring and loving girls we have ever known. Her death was truly a tragedy. But all the memories of the good times will never fade away. Although she is not here physically, she did not die. For someone who stays in the hearts and minds of us all, will live forever! We love you, Amy.

David B. Nieves

David Nieves was a sensitive, likable young man who loved his friends and family. his honesty and strong individuality earned him the respect of both the faculty and his fellow students. He made a warm, lasting impression on those whose lives he touched.

MR. SALVUCCI

Don Salvucci was a quiet and unassuming man who left his mark on his students, his department, and on his state. Sal's love of teaching and of his students was evident to all. Plato's statement about the loss of his friend and teacher, Socrates, in 399 B.C., is relevant at this time, "Such was the end . . . of our friend; concerning whom I may truly say, that of all the men of his time whom I have known, he was the wisest and justest and best."

Melvin Cohen

MS. VELLIOS

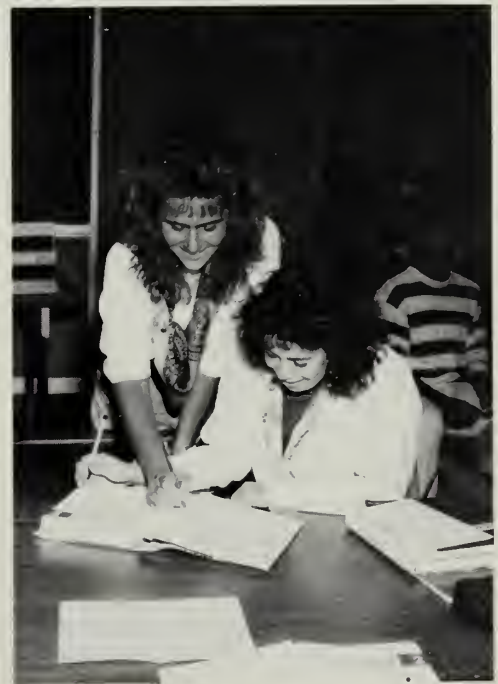

Effee Vellios' teaching career spanned 19 years, all of them spent in the Brockton School System; 18 of those years at Brockton High teaching mathematics. Math is a subject that few students truly enjoy. Effee had the ability to make the subject enjoyable for all her students. Through her enthusiastic approach, she made her love of mathematics evident to her students. She was very demanding, yet fair. She inspired her students to strive for their best, to achieve all that they could. At the same time her students found her to be caring, kind, and sympathetic to their individual needs. Much of her compassion and understanding of the problems students encountered stemmed from her own experiences. She came to the United States as a child, speaking only Greek. Her strong determination to learn English went beyond her regular school day, as she would take extra English classes after school. She continued her education and became a teacher in order to help students achieve what had been so important to her: an education. She was a remarkable teacher, one who left a lasting impression on her students. Above all, Effee Vellios was a classy lady, who will be sorely missed by her colleagues, but more importantly by her students.

Administration

Superintendent

Mr. Manthala George

Superintendent Manthala George Jr. is extremely proud of the Brockton school system and of the success of the Brockton High School students. An employee of the Brockton school system since 1962, Mr. George has watched and taken part in its development throughout these years. Now, as superintendent, he still works to make our school system one of the best. During this year alone, he has been responsible for the improvement of numerous aspects of our system including drop-out prevention, parental involvement, student attendance, statewide test scores and student performance in general.

In addition to his work, Mr. George can be commended for the interest which he has sparked in teachers and students. He takes pride in the dedication which the students and faculty show towards the challenges they face and feels that they have responded with success. This success proves that Mr. George is doing his job well and that, by offering an assortment of programs at different levels, the school has helped students to find their particular interests.

Mr. George has found his years as superintendent to be extremely satisfying and he is especially pleased with the performance of the class of '89. He has only "high expectations" for the students and hopes that "they recognize the need to continue to identify educational and career goals and to achieve those objectives."

- Ross Markonish

Principal

Mr. Robert F. Reagan

Principal Robert F. Reagan has worked hard at Brockton High for nearly twenty years, striving to make it a school of which we can all be proud. The first housemaster of the Green Building, he was appointed principal in July 1974 and continues to make contributions to education in that capacity.

As chief administrator of Brockton High School, Robert Reagan is perhaps better able to form an impression of the class of '89 than any other educator. Working closely with the student body has afforded him a clear perspective, and his observations on the class as a whole reflect his insight. "It's a good group to work with," he noted, adding "Their interest in education is strong." He does, however, caution that "in order for this class to be successful, they're going to have to adapt themselves to the different environment of college life." In parting he comments, "All in all I would give this class an 'A' rating."

-David O'Connor

MR. MARIO DIMARZO

Mr. Mario Dimarzo has been involved in the Brockton school system since 1958 when he came here from the Abington school system. In 1970 he became assistant Housemaster and in 1971 he took his present job as Housemaster of the Red Building. Before he became Housemaster, he taught business education and was involved with the football team both as an assistant and head coach.

Mr. Dimarzo, through his duties as Housemaster, has had the opportunity to deal with the students and the faculty and has helped both to the best of his ability. As Housemaster, he tries to project the image of being firm, but fair, and because of this he has earned the respect and admiration of the students and faculty.

When asked about the class of 1989 he says, "They are very congenial, very ambitious, very talented and because of this, a number of them will be very successful." He feels that the graduating seniors should set high goals for themselves, be determined to achieve them and then commit themselves to their goals in order to achieve them. He feels that dreams can come true, but only if you make them come true. In closing, he'd like to wish the class of 1989 a good deal of happiness and success along with God's speed.

John Donaruma

MR. CHRIS ARGYS

Mr. Chris Argys has been the Azure Housemaster for years. During this time he has earned the respect and admiration of both the students and faculties. His outgoing personality and warm friendly manner puts everyone at ease when they meet him.

Mr. Argys duties include supervising the faculty of the Azure building and part of the Fine Arts building. He also works closely with the guidance department in order to insure that all of the students in his building have the proper schedule requirements. Some of the day to day discipline of the building is also meted out under his authority.

When asked about what part of his job was the most enjoyable, Mr. Argys replied, "The people I meet. They are what has intrigued me the most about this job. Everyday I deal with different students, teachers, and parents. They keep me on my toes, and have kept my job from becoming monotonous and stagnant."

As the school year draws to a close, and the seniors begin planning for graduation, college, and jobs, Mr. Argys would like to give the departing senior class some advice. Mr. Argys warns students that they "must work diligently to achieve their goals because nothing will be handed you on a silver platter". Lastly, Mr. Argys wishes all the students of the class of 1989 luck and success in all of their endeavors.

Peter Keane

MR. RICHARD ZOINO

Although Mr. Richard Zoino is the most recently appointed of the four housemasters, he has been involved with Brockton High School for a considerable amount of time. He began in 1967 as a chemistry teacher, later joining the guidance department, and then assuming an administrative role as an assistant housemaster. This year he has taken over the position of housemaster of the Green Building with the goal of "giving students the best possible educational experience at Brockton High School," not only in academic areas, but also in social experiences. He wants to project an image of high integrity, one which fosters the traditional values with which he grew up, but accepts the changes in society; students as certain which changes are best for them, as they move through the high school years. This image certainly correlates with what he describes as the most enjoyable part of his job, "helping students handle day-to-day concerns and problems." While Mr. Zoino describes the class of 1989 as "good, sincere people who are directed in their future goals," he is concerned that the seniors do not have as many social concerns as their counterparts of several years ago. He advises the members of the class of '89 to look toward developing their own skills and talents so that they may become productive in life, and to realize, however, that one aspect of being productive is giving to others in a positive, caring way. He cautions seniors against becoming myopic in thought, and tells them to "look at the world" in an attempt to make it better for us all.

Brian Baylor

DR. CLAIRE APPLING

Dr. Claire Appling has been involved with the Brockton School Department for 35 years. Her career began with a teaching position at West Junior High in which she taught a plethora of subjects ranging from English to arithmetic to geography. She then went on to become a history teacher at the "old" high school and co-chairperson of the History Department before eventually becoming the Housemaster of the Yellow Building. She is well-known in this role for her no-nonsense attitude, a factor which has probably contributed to the "well-behaved" nature she feels the class of '89 exhibits. Also describing our class as having "a mature attitude," she says that we seem to "have plans and goals" and budget our time, engaging in work or extracurricular activities. Dr. Appling stresses that students should continue along these lines in their futures utilizing time and "developing innate talents to their full potential." She tells students not to think in terms of a single career, but to try to develop skills in more than one area or pursue a double major in college, advising them to "be aware of instant obsolescence" and be ready to adapt to new conditions. What does Dr. Appling enjoy most about her job? "Seeing successes — seeing students develop their potential" in both the short term and the long term goals.

Brian Baylor

Assistant Housemasters

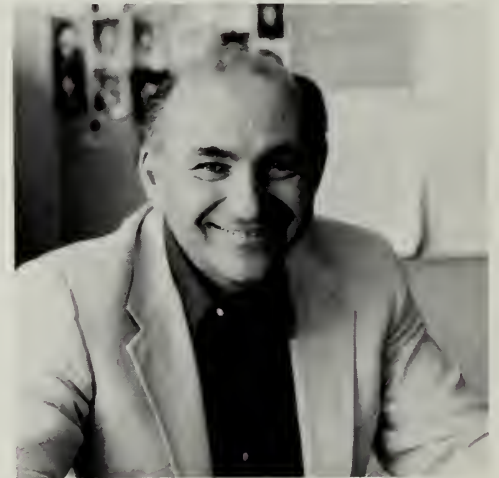

Mr. Kenneth Cardone

Mr. Kenneth Cardone, the Assistant Housemaster of the Red Building, has held that position for the past twelve years. Like all of the Assistant Housemasters, he deals with the discipline and attendance of the Red House students. He finds his job very enjoyable and satisfying, particularly when he is able to help students from the beginning of high school to "turn their lives around socially and academically" over the next four years. Mr. Cardone feels the senior class carries on the tradition of all BHS graduating classes. The class of 1989 has shown excellence in arts, musics, athletics, an other various clubs. Mr. Cardone's advice is to "continue to develop interests and talents that you have."

-Peter Keane-

Mr. Charles Puliafico has been involved with the Brockton school system for over 35 years as a teacher, a coach, and as the Assistant Housemaster of the Azure Building. He tries to project a "firm but fair" image. Commenting that he has to be an actor, sometimes being a paternal grandfather, while at other times he must act angry. He enjoys seeing kids turning things around. Mr. Puliafico observes that the class of 1989 has "been a good, cooperative class and wishes them the best, advising them to "do the very best you can, and reach for everything because its available."

Patrick O'Brien and Brian Baylor

Mr. Eugene Marrow

Mr. Raymond Bussolari has been involved with the Brockton School Department for thirty years, He was a Health teacher, a Physical Education teacher, and the head of the Physical Education Department before becoming Assistant Housemaster of the Yellow Building when the new high school opened in 1970. He tries to project an image of fairness and describes his favorite part of being an assistant housemaster as "being able to help kids straighten themselves out." He adds that he wishes he "could meet more of the good kids in this building." He feels that the class of 1989 contains many individuals that will go on to do very well in life. Finally, Mr. Bussolari advises the members of the class of '89 to "be yourself, do the best you can, and never stop striving to better yourself."

-Brian Baylor-

Mr. Raymond Bussolari

Mr. Eugene Marrow has maintained a strong connection with the student element throughout his twenty eight year career with the Brockton School System, coaching student athletes while teaching mathematics and Health at South Junior High and physical education at Brockton High. He also coached during his tenure as a Student Representative at the high school, a position in which he listened to student grievances and concerns and presented these concerns to other administration members. During the 1987-88 season and for part of the 1989 school year, Mr. Marrow was the assistant principal at East Junior High: while he had an enjoyable experience during this time, he had been involved with Brockton High School for so many years that he decided to accept the position of assistant housemaster of the Green buiilding. Mr. Marrow strives to be fair and consistent in carrying out his job. In addition, he wants students to perceive him as someone who understands that he is human and fallible, and as someone who likes kids. He notes that while his job often accentuates the negative aspects of Brockton High School, he remains aware of the many positive things going on in the high school in academic, athletic, and extracurricular activiteis, such as the bands or the drama club. He feels that it is "too bad that the community doesn't realize what is going on in these areas", adding that he wishes that more students would take advantage of the opportunities they have. His advice to the senior class is that they should "reach as high as possible" and that they "shouldn't be afraid to dream big or set high standards, and should not let anything limit their goals". Mr. Marrow adds that he is proud to be associated with Brockton High School.

Clubs And Organizations

Senior Class Officers And Executive Committee

Ironically in a nation dominated by males in offices of high places, the senior class officers are all of the female gender. The four respectable and reliable officers have disproved the theory that a woman's place is in the home. Their successful efforts resulted in many fundraisers, trips and proms. These officers have shown what great things can be done with group effort and communication in roles of duty. Having spent three years together, they have formed rather special bonds of friendship. They have discovered that they share a few things in common. For one thing, the favorite all time singer is George Michael. Upon this common understanding, their work has been that much easier.

Junior Class Officers And Executive Committee

The Class of 1990 wishes to be known for its dedication and originality. As a Junior Class we have taken a shopping trip to Boston, conducted a heart-to-heart dating match-up, and sold Boxer spirit hats to support our athletic teams. Through weekly meetings, we believe that we are giving the Class of 1990 the kind of prom that it deserves. In the future we plan to set high goals for ourselves, and not be an ordinary class but one good enough to be called the Class of '90.

Freshman Class Officers And Executive Committee

As the Freshman Class Officers and Executive Committee we have done our best to make this year a successful one. We have had a number of fundraisers such as, the selling of flowers on Valentines Day and the raffling of a Champion sweatshirt, throughout the school year to greatly expand our treasury for the future years at Brockton High. We had a great year, and we will do our best to help make the class of '92 the best it can be.

Sophomore Class Officers And Executive Committee

The Sophomore Class Officers and Executive Committee has had a very successful year. We have raised many funds to be used for future events. Some activities that we have been involved in were selling flowers, sending Valentine messages, and selling chocolate bunnies.

Drama Club

Senior Members include: Kristin Abisso, German Alfonso, David Aveni, Lisa Bovarnick, Suzanne Cayer, David Costa, Tammy Fischer, Joel Greenbaum, Nicole Gustas, Nancy Keefe, Susan Kohn, Christopher Koelsch, Maria Luizzi, Bobbi-Lee Lutoff, Eric McLaughlin, Denise Moncy, Emily Murphy, Kerry Murtagh, Kristina Nye, David O'Connor, Christine O'Keefe, Vickie Pratt, and Nancy Snow.

Under the combined dedicated guidance of Drama Club director Ms. Carol Thomas, wardrobe director Mrs. Elaine Kelly, and set director Mr. Thomas Richards, the Drama Club involves students in all areas of backstage production, as well as acting and directing. The 1988-1989 season was no exception when BHS award winning Drama Club enjoyed a diversified, successful and brilliant season.

The season began with the hilarious and heartwarming comedy, "Harvey." Mary Chase's immortal classic won many accolades for its universal message of friendship and family bonds. In January, the Club unveiled its original adaptation of O. Henry short stories, "Wry and Ginger with a Twist" as Brockton's entry into the Massachusetts High School Drama Guild Competition. The students involved in this production were particularly proud of the competition piece since it was conceived and adapted by our own Ms. Carol Thomas and was directed and adjusted to the stage by the cast themselves. In March, the mystical children's production "Magic Theatre" was performed for the city's youth. The season was rounded out the performance of the annual Spring Musical.

With this blend of comedy, charming classics and educational theatre the 1988-1989 season was especially varied and one of the most triumphant ever.

-Christopher Koelsch

National Honor Society

This year, the N.H.S. officers are: Gina Garda, President; David O'Connor, Vice-President; Rachel Creutz, Treasurer; Carmita Alonso, Secretary, and the faculty advisor is Mr. Robert Laurie.

The National Honor Society consists of upperclassmen who have displayed superiority in their performance at Brockton High School. Students are selected in their junior year by the faculty, who consider both academic excellence and extracurricular activities as a basis for admittance.

The new members attend the induction ceremony with their parents in the spring of their junior year. They receive a NHS pin and pledge the oath of loyalty. In their senior year, members tutor students in various subjects and help with charity events. There is a certain pride in belonging to the society and each inductee proves loyalty to the NHS tradition so that the society's prestige may be preserved.

Student Senate

Student Senate Officers

Christine O'Keefe President, Lisa Bovarnick Vice President, Kathy Wood Secretary, Tony Stuart Treasury

The Student Senate has been dedicating all its time to making Brockton High a better place for students and teachers alike. We have been meeting with Mr. George to discuss topics of students concern, we've been working hard to pass the shorts proposal and have formed a committee to meet with Mr. Reagan on this subject. The publicity committee has devoted itself to making the students aware of their rights by posting a "Right of the Month" throughout the school. We have sold sunglasses and locker mirrors to raise money for Senate trips in the spring months. The Senate has also been the driving force behind a "Beach Party" Dance held on St. Patrick's Day. The Senate brought both Senior and Junior executive committees together in organizing this dance. We have accomplished a great deal this year and the Senate officers would like to thank all of the seniors for their dedication and commitment.

Student Advisory Council

The Student Advisory Council involves students who are interested in advocating the voice of the student body in city and state issues. The regional SAC is made up of eight members who attend a meeting in Lakeville every month. They discuss issues affecting the state on a social, educational, political and economical level. The local SAC is made up of students from each of the four houses and one alternate: the President of the local SAC is Michael Kelliher and the secretary is Sarah Pak.

The local SAC attends the open school committee meetings held every two weeks in the Little Theatre. The members are exposed to the procedures taken in budget proposals involving the schools and other city-side issues.

The SAC members have taken the initiative in involvement and volunteerism. Hopefully, the curiosity and youthful attitude in today's generation will not fade. Students must now show that they are the pride of the present and the hope of the future. Stay Gold!

Co-Editors-in-Chief Kristina Nye and Christopher Koelsch

Under the capable and dedicated direction of new faculty advisor Ms. Olga Falcon and Co-Editors-in-Chief Christopher Koelsch and Kristina Nye, The Permanent Press had yet another successful publishing year. A new generation of the school newspaper began as the staff expanded the focus of reporting to all facets of both school and community life. Investigative reporting also took on a greater role and editorials took on the most controversial issues head-on. The 1988-1989 Permanent Press was a true source of BHS pride, and the current staff hopes that next year's staff will continue the tradition of excellence.

-Christopher Koelsch

Literary Review

The B.H.S. Literary Review is an organization dedicated to publishing the works of talented student writers. Under the direction of Mr. Mark Lincoln, it encourages students to submit poems, essays and short stories for inclusion in the school magazine. In doing this, the Literary Review helps students to develop both their writing skills and their own creativity. The editors of the magazine welcome new writers of all levels and ages onto the staff and also publish any other interesting works submitted by the student body. As in past years, the Literary Review has helped to discover many budding writers who may even become the top authors and poets of the future.

Key Club

This year, advisor Dave Dore's Key Club had another whopping season of fundraising. The club raised $4,000 through such varied activities as parking cars at the Brockton Fair, working in food booths at Boxer football games, and selling refreshments at the high school Basketball Tournament. The club also organized teacher appreciation week. Eight members of the club have been selected to participate in the national Key Club convention in Orlando, Florida. The members of the club would like to thank Mr. Dore for his support and guidance through thick and thin.

S.A.D.D.

The S.A.D.D. Executive Committee, with the help of Mr. Vincent Riccardi, took on 1989 with much enthusiasm. The committee helped spread the word of "Friends Don't Let Friends Drive Drunk." With all our efforts, we hope to make celebrations happy without the aid of alcohol.

With Chairpeople Kati Dolan, Kim Schultz, and Michelle Jacobs, the committee also promoted the "Just Say No" slogan at the Senior Semi-Formal and at both proms. We only hope that our efforts will always be remembered through the lives we save. Remember: "The choice is yours, the choice is mine, Don't Drink and Drive in '89."

-Kati Dolan

Chess Club

The Brockton High School chess club is an extracurricular activity which involves talented students who want to learn, improve their skills, or just play chess. The club meets once a week with the advisor, Mr. Podolsky. The students play exhibition chess matches and record them in a catalog. After a period of time, the players with the best records are chosen for the Chess Team and go to other schools to compete. Players in the club that are not chosen for the team remain in the organization to improve their skills. Strategic chess moves, good sportsmanship, and winning records are the keys to enjoying membership in this club. Chess, anyone?

T.V./Radio Club

The purpose of the TV/Radio Club is to offer members the opportunity to learn about the communication mediums of television and radio. By being involved in various television productions, students acquire a basic knowledge of technique and the different types of equipment used in this field. They are then able to apply this knowledge through eager participation in club activities. The recent production of the "Brockton High Lites" news program has increased student cooperation and provided both the students and faculty of B.H.S. with a new look at their school. The radio show produced entirely by club members is heard daily on the Brockton Access Channel 8A. Both groups endeavor to work together to produce original television and radio programs for all of Brockton under the direction of advisor, Tom Buba.

Math Team

This year's Math Team, under the tutelage of John A. Pedicini, was led by seniors Pat O'Brien, Bob Mandeville, Monty Strumph, Woo Joo, and Andrew Sezak. Emotional support from Miss Rysman and Joshua Chadajo helped to keep the group in order. Being on the Math Team has been quite an experience for all. During the year we traveled to far and distant places, met strange and unusual people, and attempted solving problems that could only have been taken from an M.I.T. textbook. Thanks to Mr. P. who made all of this possible; it's been a great year. Support your local mathlete- purchase a monogrammed pencil protector today. "What, me worry?"

Academic Bowl

Standing alone, fighting apathy and ignorance, the Academic Team shone like a beacon in the night in the 1988-1989 season, placing first in their league with a record of nine wins and three losses. The team competes in Academic Bowls, matches which test the knowledge of students and their ability to think under pressure. The team competes against other schools on the South Shore, drawing huge crowds in the auditoriums of other schools as well as our own Little Theatre. Competitions are also recorded by the BHS T.V. Radio Club on occasion, and are aired on both WBMS and the Brockton cable channel. Under the guidance of Coach Rosemary Koury, the team members have honed their mental reflexes to razor sharp levels. They have learned to be four minds acting as one, turning in a remarkable performance despite field injuries and dangerous road trips. Senior members this year included veterans Peter Keane, Rob Mandeville, Woo Joo, and Brian Baylor, as well as new enlistments David O'Connor, Justin Willow, Ross Markonish, Rachel Creutz, Stephanie Gould, Lisa Cohen, Liz Denholm, and Michelle D'Ambrose.

Spanish Club

Hola,

You probably wonder what the Spanish Club is all about. Well, we don't just speak espanol and eat tacos/Claro que no! With our advisor la senora Patricia Baylor and our officers, we plan lots of fun activities like fiestas, field trips to Spanish restaurants, listening to Spanish music and watching Spanish movies. Fun no? But the most important of all our activities is sponsoring a foster child in Guatemala! Caramba! She's our pride and joy.

The Spanish Club helps us learn the different aspects of the Spanish Culture and language. The best part of it is the fun we have doing it. This year was very exiting for all of us, but the best is yet to come. So watch out world 'cause here we come. Adios.

In the short time the Italian Club at Brockton High has been in existence it has prospered in many ways. It has been received enthusiastically by both faculty and students alike, through the efforts of Ms Iolli, the advisor, the activities of the club have included a fund raiser, dinner outings and most importantly, a trip to Italy. Those who took part in this trip learned first hand about Italian culture. The Italian Club should be considered a worthwhile addition to the many organizations at Brockton High School.

National Merit Scholars

The class of 1989 produced many Merit Scholars. These students were chosen for their outstanding performance on the 1987 Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test. These students scored in the top five percent of the more than one million students who took part in the thirty-fourth annual competition. One student, Nicole Gustas, advanced as a semifinalist and two students, Brian Baylor and Justin Willow, advanced as finalists. All Merit Scholars were honored by both the Brockton School Committee and the Rotary Club of Brockton. This year's group was uncharacteristically well-rounded and non nerdish. It should be noted for example, that this year's group contains a pilot, a guitarist, a headbanger, and a Roy Orbison look-alike, as well as several actors and athletes. Brian Baylor and David O'Connor

D.E.C.A.

The DECA program at Brockton High is designed for students interested in marketing and management careers. Students put techniques learned in the classroom — display, advertising, and customer relations, to name a few — into practice by managing the school store and working in area businesses. The practical experience develops leadership qualities and provides students with better career opportunities in the future.

My Turn

For many seniors, the prospect of graduation brings about feelings of despair and anxiety because they are unsure of their future. My Turn (Massachusetts Youth Teenage Unemployment Reduction Network), an organization at Brockton High School, tries to identify these students, and help map out their futures. These dedicated individuals strive to equip seniors with the skills and confidence needed to enter the work force upon graduation. This is accomplished through workshops delivered by professionals, and job matching and placement. My Turn proves to be a major influence in the success that the student finds when entering the job market.

Ski Club

Although 1989 was not a great year for skiing the B.H.S. Ski Club was still as active as ever. The club continued to make weekly trips to Mt. Wachusett in Princeton, MA after school and even sponsored a weekend trip to Mout St. Anne in Quebec, Canada. Headed by advisor Mr. Lanzetta and club president Candi Kalp the members, ranging from beginners to experts, enjoyed a full year of skiing. Whether they went all out on the Mogul runs or kept to the bunny slopes, ski club members had a great time as they improved their skiing abilities with their friends.

Afro-American Club

The Afro-American Club is open to any student at Brockton High School. What do we do? Well, apart from having fundraisers, dances and engaging in other activities such as field trips to local colleges and Black college fairs, we put on a formidable Talent and Fashion show annually in which everyone is eager to participate. Interesting? Exciting? Of course, with a group as large as ours we always find ways to entertain others and ourselves while learning to be responsible. In addition to this, every year we raise money and award thousands of dollars in scholarships to the senior members of the club.

All of this is made possible by one person, Mrs. Beverly Tubbs who is not only our advisor, but also our best friend.

Haitian Club

The Haitian Club, founded by Nedjey Cassamajor and Chantilly Jn Baptiste, is a club open to all Haitian students. Its main goal is to help Haitians get accustomed to the new educational system and environment in the United States. The club helps preserve the Haitian culture, and present a new image of this culture to others. It encourages Haitian students to be active in the school's extracurricular activities. Most of all it is here as an oasis in a desert to offer some comfort to those stricken with nostalgia for their homeland.

Pride Is Alive

We see it around each and every day: spirited posters, red and black balloons and streamers. Where do they come from: from none other than the enthusiastic students who form the "Pride is Alive" committee. Throughout the year, they use their pep and pride to raise the spirit and support of the student body.

Canoe/Ecology Club

The Ecology Club and the Canoe Club are both headed by Mr. Robert Tilley of the Science Department. The former group takes numerous Saturday, and weekend trips to the mountains, where they hike, climb, and explore, while the latter group goes on many after school trips in and around the Brockton Area. Both clubs are exciting and adventurous; this year a certain English teacher and three of his students were left in the dust by Mr. Tilley's mountain climbers. Despite dangerous road trips and the everpresent risk of falling off a mountain or into a river, Ecology/Canoe Club members always manage to enjoy themselves as well as learn interesting facts concerning nature from Mr. Tilley. This year's senior members would like to wish next year's group good luck and to thank Mr. Tilley. May his fig newton supply never run out.
Brian Bayler

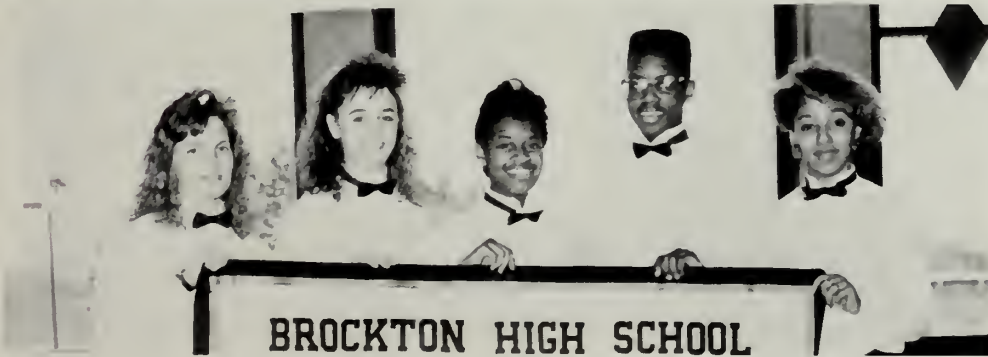

Concert Choir

The Concert Choir is a group of 65 to 75 individuals of varying singing ability. The group does many concerts through the course of the school year. Some of these concerts include trips to the local junior highs, and the annual holiday and pops concerts at BHS. This year we will attend the music festival in Toronto, Canada.

Harmonics

Harmonics, also under the direction of Ms. Penny Knight, travels all over New England singing in clubs, function halls and nursing homes. The members of the group put so much of themselves into the music that it is hard to believe that they are only teenagers. This year, 26 members of the Harmonics group will participate in the All Eastern Show Choir Festival. The Harmonics also participated with the Concert Choir in a music festival in Toronto, Canada. Other events included: the Methuen Jazz Classical Festival and singing for the AARP and the Kiwanis Concert.

Marching Band

Under the direction of Mr. Vincent Macrina, the Brockton High School Marching Band had a fantastic season. The Marching Boxers commanded the field with two impressive shows. In each show, the style and flair of each section shone through. From the soaring brass solos to the driving rhythms of the drums, individuals as well as the band itself kept the beat going. From their appearance at the Boxers' opening game to the last minutes of the Super Bowl, the Marching Boxers added music to the winning tradition of Brockton High School.

Jazz Band And Band Officers

Even though the Brockton High School Jazz Ensemble suffered the loss of an extraordinarily large and talented senior class last year, this year's Ensemble, having many new members, is doing well. Through the work and determination of this year's senior members and the devotion of their director, Mr. Vincent Macrina, the group has come together and is now actively entering its concert season. As in years past, the Jazz Ensemble is performing at most of the junior highs and elementary schools in the city, the Rotary Club, the Kiwanis Club, and all the Stonehill Chieftains' basketball games. In the past, however this 1988-1989 Ensemble as well as many of its individual members have participated and won awards in some of the most prestigious competitions in the state and in the country. In 1988 the Ensemble won a bronze medal in the Southeastern District Jazz Ensemble Competition. This exceptionally talented group was also afforded the opportunity to compete against some of the best Jazz Bands in the world. In this particular competition, which was held in Washington, D.C., the Ensemble performed before a panel of judges who judged according to a particular international rating system. Of all the bands that perform around the world, only six percent receive gold medals. The Brockton High School Jazz Ensemble, because of its superior musicianship, won a gold medal while achieving one of the highest recorded scores. Looking beyond the band as a unit, we can see what makes this such a superior group. Considered perhaps one of the best guitarists in the country and certainly the best in the state, Bob Sneider has been in the All-State Jazz Band for three years and this year was chosen to perform as a member of the McDonald's All-American Band. He is one of four incredible players who form the heart and soul of the ensemble rhythm section. The other three musicians in this section are Al Handy on bass, Maria Luizzi on piano, and Kevin Snow on percussion. The Ensemble is comprised of fourteen other members: five trumpets featuring Mark Mullins and Brian Scalton who also made the All-State Jazz Band, four trombones with the senior leads, Barry Hilliard and Tom Enos, and five saxophones, featuring Leigh Braunstein as lead alto-saxophone. Although each member is accomplished in his own right, the success of the Ensemble as a whole is a great credit to Vincent Macrina. The 1988-1989 Ensemble, which has played together since September, will perform its last major concert this season on May 6, 1989 at Brockton High School.

Majorettes

Captain: Marygrace Vella, Cocaptains: Gayle Verbiski, and Karen Cohen, Members: Rose Adams, Denise Dilido, Dawn Doherty, Kristen Ivers, Christine Martinez, Allison McDonald, Wendy Polednick, Jean Reordan, Andrea Smith, Kathy Wood, Maryanne Zouboulis

The Majorettes have always been an exciting part of the half time show, and this year proved to be no exception. The squad is under the leadership of advisor Judy Noone, Captain Marygrace Vella, and Cocaptains Gayle Verbiski and Karen Cohen. Through their hard work and band, dancers, colorguard and majorettes pulled off another great show this year. The squad is made up of a remarkable group of twirlers who work hard to perfect their routines. The opportunity to perform in front of a large stadium was a very rewarding experience that will always be remembered in the hearts of the 1988-89 majorettes. Good Luck to the Seniors and keep Twirling!

Karen Cohen, Denise Dilido, Jenn Reordan, Marygrace Vella, Gayle Verbiski, Kathy Wood, and Maryanne Zouboulis.

Color Guard

Members: Captain Jessica Wainwright, co-captain Kelly Moran, Kristin Thompson, Sarah Pak, Bonnie Janowiec, Anne Marie Spring, Vicki Pratt, Jackie Doherty, Laura McSweeney, Christie O'Keefe, Kristen Shearing, Melissa Kuell, Melanie McCaul, Jamie Siegal, April Conrad

The Brockton High School Color Guard added vibrant routines and color to the dazzling half-time shows of the 1988-189 season. The fifteen members of the squad performed with sharp movements of precision that have given the half-time shows the lift that they needed. Only in their third season, the squad feels that they have become an integral part of the show.

Along with the other squads, the colorguard gave an outstanding performance at the Super Bowl at Sullivan Stadium. Coordination plays a big part in the routines and the girls work extremely hard to make theirs a success.

Cheerleaders

Members include: Chrissy Lawson, Amy Wells, Alex Hall, Rachel Creutz, Karen Carney, Carmita Alonso, Karen Lawson, Lisa Wable, Susan Joy, Belisa Monteiro, Chrissy Fitts, Laronda Campbell, Wendy Antunes.

From the kickoff until the moment when the sportscaster announces, "The Boxers have done it again!" one group of individuals enthusiastically cheer for the winning team. This energetic group of junior and senior girls dressed in Brockton's colors can definitely be named the Boxers' "number one fans." These girls, most commonly known as the B.H.S. Cheerleaders, have spirit that is much deeper than their red and black uniforms and pom poms, and Boxer pride that comes right from the heart.

The B.H.S. cheerleaders knew from the start that the 1988 season was going to be incredible; They began to prepare early in the summer. Captains Karen Carney and Rachel Creutz began organizing various fundraisers and activities to ensure a successful season. The eighteen conscientious girls were prepared to work hard to achieve excellence this upcoming season; therefore, they attended the Universal Cheerleading Association's summer camp. Going to camp was the spark that ignited the spirit within all of the cheerleaders. They won four first place ribbons and two second place ribbons for excellence. In addition, the five hundred girls attending the camp voted the B.H.S. cheerleaders as having the most pep and enthusiasm. They awarded the Brockton High cheerleaders with the "Master Key to Spirit Award."

Half-Time Dancers

Members include: Kristine Moccia, Kim Tucker, Jennifer Pileski, Stephanie Gould, Debbie Siegal, Dannielle Hall, Paulette Giannaros, Lissy Gossman, Christel Wallace, Lisa Butler, Nicole Scott, Jackie Stover, Tara Mellish, Shelley Lewis, Suzi Sullivan, Marci Stone, Holly Simpson, Jill Craig.

"There's No Business Like Show Business," and there's no business like being a B.H.S. half-time dancer. Every football season, the best dancers at B.H.S. come together with the band, majorettes and color guard to put on a top rate half time show worthy of the #1 Brockton Boxer Football team. We had a great season this year performing two different shows. The first show included a fast paced routine to the hit song "La Bamba," and a more laid back one to the popular "Mack the Knife," in which all participants in the half time show lent their voices to sing the tune made popular again by a McDonald's commercial. The second show was a top hat and cane extravaganza that paid tribute to the Immortal Irving Berlin. Opening with "There's No Business Like Show Business," then into a soft shoe routine to "Steppin' Out with My Baby," the crowd came to their feet as we finished with "Alexander's Ragtime Band."

Under the direction of Ms. Thomas and Mrs. Osofsky, the 18 girls on the squad had an excellent season. This year, Kristine Moccia was our captain, with Kim Tucker and Jennifer Pileski as co-captains. It was these three girls that choreographed the dances we performed on the field. Other seniors on the squad were Debbie Siegal, Danielle Hall, Paulette Giannaros, Stephanie Gould, Lissy Gossman, Christel Wallace and Lisa Butler. We are all going to miss being half time dancers and we would like to wish good luck to the other members of the 1988-1989 squad: Nicole Scott, Jackie Stover, Tara Mellish, Shelley Lewis, Suzi Sullivan, Marci Stone, Holly Simpson and Jill Craig. Good Luck to Everyone and KEEP DANCING!

Sports

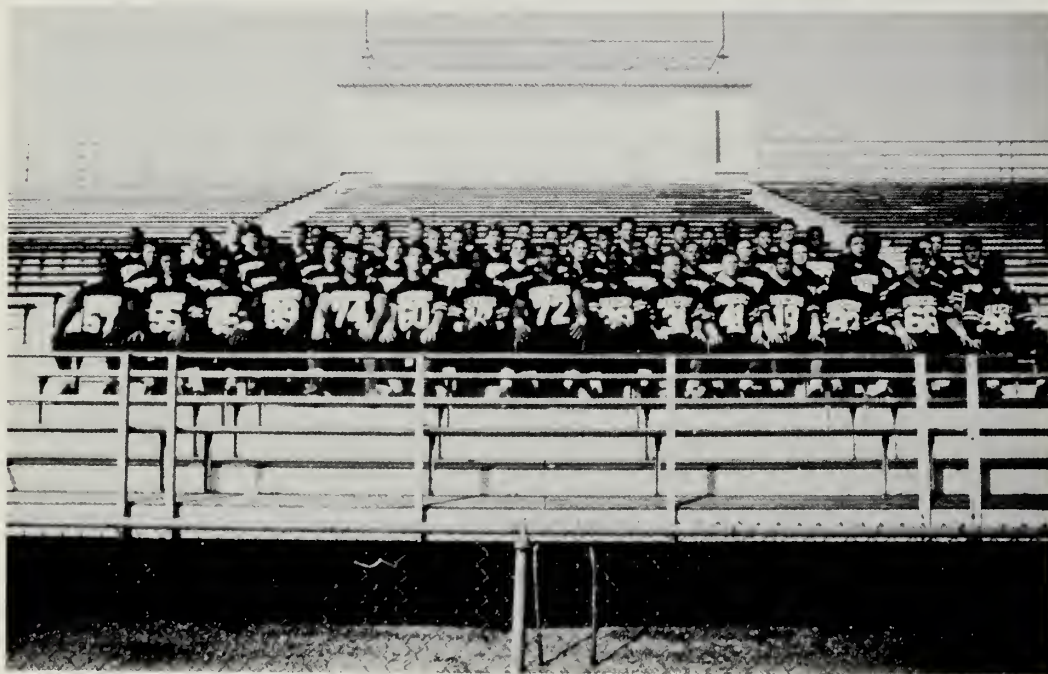

Football

The Brockton Boxers' were once again successful this year as they began the season of tough wins against Rome Free Academy and Baltimore PolyTech Institute. This was just the start of a long successful haul to on their way to the Division One Superbowl.

The determination was put in action by captains, Rudy Harris, Darnell Campbell, Michael Lewis, Michael Thorsen, Jay McGillis, and Chris Murphy. With the desire and work of players such as Joe D'Amore, Stephen Marciano, Leon Stepherson, Ray Marshall, Bob Zurinskas, Bill McCoy and many others, the Boxers found themselves in Sullivan Stadium once again. With the knowledge of the coaching staff, the dedication of Armond Colombo, and the support of fans, the Brockton Boxers will keep striving to uphold their reputation as the best team in the country.

Dawn Tosca

The 1988-89 Golf team had a very successful season under the direction of coach Phil O'Connell.

After losing their opening match to Brookline, they proceeded from that point to chalk up eleven straight wins capturing the Suburban League Title and finishing 11-1.

The team was led by captain Mike Sturdevant whose experience proved to be very instrumental to the team's success. The strong play of seniors A.J. Kennedy and John Noone will be missed for next year's season. Continuing the Boxer tradition next year will be Jay Berksza, Jon Dragonetti, Evan Eaton, Scott Greenberg, Roger Heerman, Adam Horvit, Tom Johnson, and Mark Sherman.

-John Noone

Girls' Cross Country

This year's Girl's Cross Country Team worked hard under coach Jim O'Donnell and placed well in the Suburban League. They had a tough season with such competitions as Cambridge and Waltham. Seniors leaving the team are Andrea Geovanis, Kim Ingals, Missy Moore, and Eileen Murphy. Though they did not have many wins, the team, as always, had excellent personal records.

Kim Newton
Nancy Snow

Boys' Cross Country

The Brockton High School Cross Country team endured a very long but victorious season. The team was undefeated in winning the Suburban League title, and also placed in many major meets held around New England.

The team was led by co-captains Mike Scanlon and Tim Simonis. Other seniors on the team are Dave Aveni, Ken Michelson, Gene Gomez, Adam Weatherbee and Matt Donavagh.

-Mike Scanlon

Girls' Soccer

The 1988 Girl's Soccer Team had another successful season, finishing with a 15-3 record and making their way into the first round of the State Tournament. The team was led by Tri-Captains, junior Julie Smalley, and seniors, Enid Sweeting and Dawn Tosca.

With the scoring of returning seniors Ronke Akibolumo, Gail Reed, Lorry Musari, and Julie Smalley and the unbeatable defense of Candi ShoeMaker, Heather Sullivan, Leslie Yenush, and Julie Dennehy, next year's team will prove to be equally strong.

Dawn Tosca

Boys' Soccer

The Brockton High Soccer Team had another eventful season this year, earning a respectable second place in the Suburban League. Coach Bill Polisenio was pleased with the efforts of the squad as they had the most successful record that Brockton has had in over five years; a notable ten wins, three losses, and five ties. This record advanced the Boxers to the Mass State Tournament where they were dealt a heart-trenching defeat by Bridgewater-Raynham in the first round.

Although the B.H.S. booters did not win league or sectional titles, they had a highly skilled but physically small team. With many starting seniors such as Woo Joo, Elie Monteiro, Jon Perry, and Tri-Capt's Ya Khang, Brendon Hayes, and Robert Wise leaving the team, many gaps may be created in the 89' season. But with juniors such as Julio Pinto, Eric Marchard, John DaRosa, David Capore, and goal-keeper Greg Tracey returning for next year the team should sustain itself and hopefully excel to a League Championship.

-Robert Wise

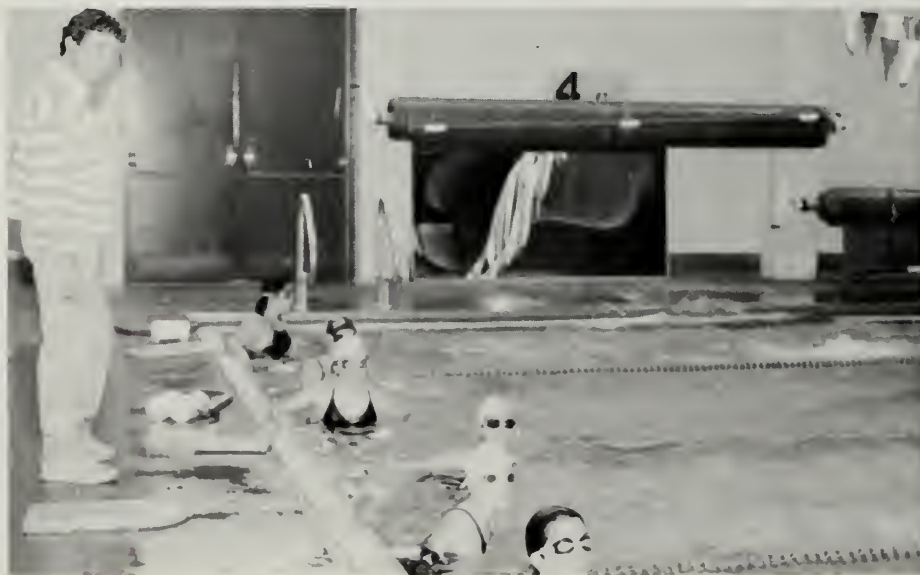

Girls' Swimming

Despite the fact that the girls' swim team had no pool at BHS, they pulled together and made the season successful. Neither the cold from the Manning Pool nor the traveling to Massasoit stopped the girls from working to their full potential. Captain Lisa Cohen and senior Jennifer Healey led the way for Brockton in and out of the water. Lisa, Eileen Sullivan, Tricia Solakoff and Karen Leonard all qualified for the South Sectional Championship with their fine performances. Good luck next year and remember that you can achieve all that you believe.

From left to right: Amy Hogan, Eileen Sullivan, Lisa Shaevizt, Suzie McNamara, Lisa Cohen.

Team: (in alphabetical order) Julie Breen, Lisa Cohen, Yvette Colmonero, Kim Devlin, Elizabeth Frye, Marcie Grossman, Beth Hall, Jennifer Healy, Jennifer Hodgins, Amy Hogan, Kara Kozic, Karen Leonard, Suzie McNamara, Lisa Paine, Cristina Pelegra, Lisa Shaevizt, Tricia Solakoff, Eileen Sullivan, Kerci Walsh, Kristen Walsh.

Boys' Swimming

The 1989 Boxers will open the season with hopes of winning another Suburban League Championship. The leadership given by senior co-captain Kirk O'Reilly and Tom Hines gives this team that spark of confidence needed to win. O'Reilly has been a four year swimmer for the Boxers and has high expectations for the team. Tom Hines has also been a member of the team for four years, and is in high contention for the state championship in the diving event. Both plan to compete in college programs after this year. Other team performers are seniors Glenn Pedrante, Ed Galante, juniors Artie McClaren, Brian Cameron, and Eric Droukas. These team members play a key role in the road to victory. Up and coming stars of the Boxers are juniors Doug Doyle, Tim Brokmier as well as sophomores Chris O'Reilly and Joe Matta. These are the stars for the future and the continuation of success. Under the supreme guidance and wisdom of 6 year Boxer coach Mark O'Reilly the Boxers hope to continue this winning tradition.

-Kirk O'Reilly
Tom Hines

Girl's Basketball

Coming off of a successful 1987-88 season, the girls' Basketball Team knew that they had a tough act to follow. However, the Lady Boxers have combined hard work and talent, proving, themselves to be a strong force. Senior veterans Tishia Anderson, Cheryl Baveineau, Maria Luizzi, Liza Cohen, Captain Michelle D'Ambrose, Tammy Goche, Dawn Tosca, and Renee Wilson, provided the Team. with a solid foundation. Their talents, combined with those of Michelle Doonan, Carrie DiRamio, Dyan Perewicz, Julie Smalley, and Jennifer Riordan, made the team a strong contender.

The well-conditioned team, made up for their lack of height with their incredible speed and fine shooting performances. The girls are continuing their hard work and trying to fight off injuries as they strive to reach success in the tournament.

Boy's Basketball

The 1989 Brockton High Basketball Team had a very successful year and finished with a great record of 20-4. This senior-dominated team was led by co-captains, Ortez Vardross and Craig Fairfield, and seniors Danny McGee, and Curtis Bostic. The Boxers also received great performances from Paul Gardner, Charles Doherty and Rob Albanys. They still reigned as a power in the Suburban League and finished in 2nd place. The Boxers were honored by having four members selected to the Suburban League All-Stars, Curtis Bostic, Craig Fairfield, Dan McGee and Ortez "Zetro" Vardross. Some highlights of the season were great wins over Cambridge and over Morse to win the Christmas Tournament. They entered the State Tournament with high hopes and reaching the South Sectional Championship where they were appended by a tough Durfee Team. The team was united like a family and had tremendous pride in themselves. This team continued the long tradition of Boxer Basketball, yet was a good team and one of the finest considering character individuals and the atmosphere of togetherness

Girls' Gymnastics

The 1988 Girl's Gymnastics Team had a fine season as well as a successful year. The senior team members Mary Beth Couble and Debbie Machini as well as junior members Amy Haus and Stacy Osborne scored well. The entire team worked hard and had a great year.

- Stacey Osborne

HOCKEY

The Brockton High School hockey team has high hopes for a successful season. They are led on defense by senior captains Shawn Wallace and A.J. Kennedy. Also on defense is senior Chris Westerlund, juniors Mike Sturdavant, Rich Curran, Shane Cantone, and sophomore Ken Schwabe and junior Russ Eonas.

The Boxer offensive attack is led by junior assistant captain Eric Peterson with help from juniors Billy Santos, Dan Hendrigan, Marc Duhammel, Kevin Cicchese, Kevin Eaton, and sophomore Dan Genatasio. Also helping out are seniors Mark Cicchese, Chris Sylvia, juniors Paul Wittman and Mike Olesch, and sophomore Marty Letrell. The Boxers will be qualifying for the state tournament and trying to win the Suburban League Title.

The future of the Brockton High hockey team is very bright for coach Bob D'Arcy and his assistant coaches Bill Devan and Mike Russell. There are high expectations for the 1989-90 season with so many key players returning. We are looking for great things to come in the new season.

Girls' Indoor Track

The Girls Indoor Track Team finished out their season with only one loss to a Championship Newton North Team. Due to a great deal of determination and hard work, the girls attained a respectable second place in the Suburban League. Seniors Kim Ingalls, Andrea Geovanis, Eileen Murphy, Missy Moore, Kim Newton, Christine Moccia, Denise Moncey, Sue Schwartz and Rhapsody Johnson provided leadership and spirit for the underclassmen. Vital point scorers also included State Finalists; Nicole Rodreigue (hurdles and high jump) and Candi Shoemaker (shotput). Strong sprint performances were turned in by Maria Evora, Nia Patterson, Vera Fortes, Ula Toe, Tamara Waltower, Heather Burns, Margo Anderson, Jill Brass and Jeannine Dageese. Contributing in the distance races were Nancy Reid, Sue MacNamara, Margie Delo, Sue MacDonald, Diane Zine, Dawn Heath, Lucia Andre, Mary Kelleher, Christine Mills and Sue Rosher. Newcomers Leigh Yancy, Bonnie Green and Lia Simpkins shows much promise in the shotput. As graduating team members, we would like to extend our best wishes to Coach Jimmy O'Donnell and his future teams.

-Kim Ingalls and Andrea Geovanis

Boys' Indoor Track

The indoor track team is in route to their second straight Suburban league Championship, and is also looking for a Division one title. Co-Captain Mario Macrina, Adam Williams, Anthony Comer, and Lamont Powell, are favored to win the sprints. Dave Stadelmann and Mike Kelleher are both looking to place in the hurdles while Co-Captain Chris Murphy is one of the picks to win the shot put. Mike Scanlon, Dave Aveni, Tim Simonis, and Adam Weatherbee will lead the distance events. Co-captain Ken Michelson along with Joe Lemar and Eugenio Gomez will handle the middle distance.

— Michael Scanlon

Girls' Volleyball

The 1988 Girls' Volleyball team members should be congratulated for their tremendous effort this year. Although they did not have a winning season, the team worked extremely well together, and put in a lot of hard work and practice. Led by co-captains Laurie Collyer and Amy Tower, the team faced strong and challenging opponents in the Suburban League. Fine performances were put in by team members Kim Bushenfeldt, Elissa Tracht, Rhapsody Johnson, Carrie DiRamio, Karen Bernasconi, Tammy Goche, and Kathy Cassamajor. The team would like to express its gratitude to Head Coach Jack Olson and Assistant Coach Jim Watson, for their time and dedication.

-Laurie Collyer

Boys' Volleyball

The Brockton Boys Volleyball team had another incredible season. Co-Captains Pat Fernandes and Ek Amantingo were an important part of their offense. In the 87-88 season the team tied Newton North for second place, but with the returning talents of Mus-sari, Captain Aaron Guillory, John Tussant, Rich Mo-hammed, Eric Marshan, Coach Olson, and the rest of the players the team is favored over last year's champs Brookline High to win the Suburban League title. Good Luck Brockton!

-Aaron Guillory

Girls Softball

The 1988 Girls Softball team won the Suburban League title once again, finishing the Season with an impressive record.

With the power-hitting of Laurie Collyer, Debbie Johnson, Dawn Tosca, and Lisa Cohen, and the pitching of Chris Gurskis and Kathy Yucius, the Boxers should have another successful season. Other factors in the Boxer's success will be the strong fielding and hitting of Junior Julie Smalley and the pitching of Michelle Doonan.

- Christine Gurskis

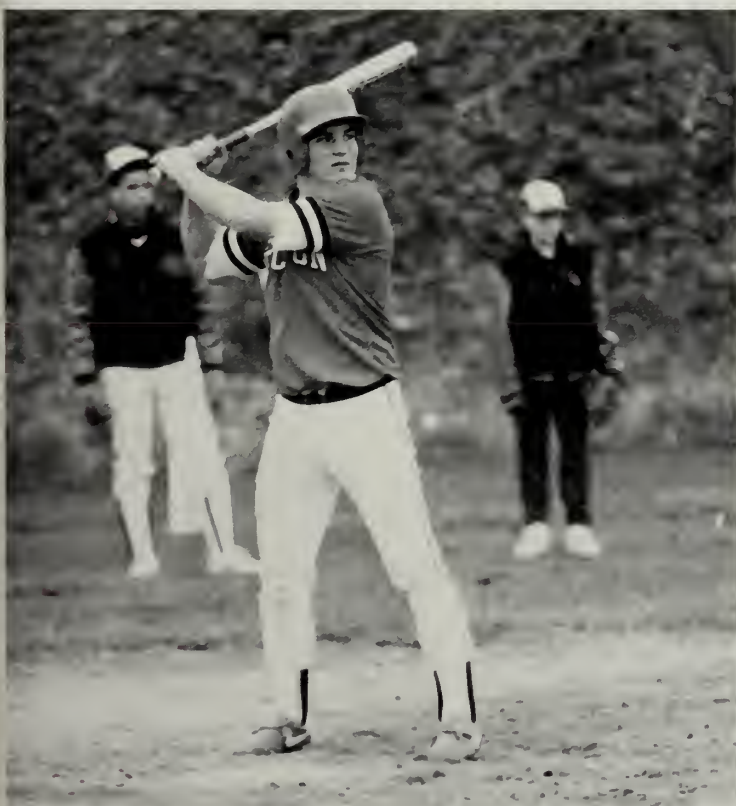

Baseball

The returning varsity baseball players and coach Dave Fouracre (second season) will try to continue the boxer's winning tradition. The boxers led by returning suburban league All-Stars Rob Albanys, outfielder (ave. 431), pitchers Ed Paull (8-0) and John Flanders (4-2), will be expected to carry the load for the Boxers in 1989. Firstbaseman Bob Flynn and outfielder Jay McGillis are expected to continue from where they left off. Their contribution will be a big factor in the Boxer's 1989 season. If all goes well the Boxers will regain their suburban league title and enter the State Tournament.

- Rob Albanys

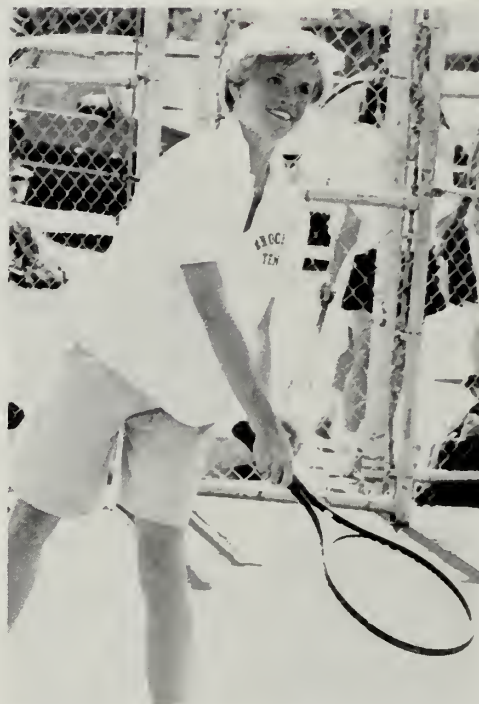

Girls Tennis

The BHS girls tennis team enjoyed a super season last year. The senior players; Suzanne Cayer, Rachel Creutz, Michelle D'Ambrose, Elizabeth Denholm, Nancy Keefe, and Nancy Snow played well and had a fun season. Laps around the courts and rigorous matches paired with stops at Burger King led the team to many victories. Their record was improved to surpass any that the Brockton High team has ever seen. Without the advisement of Coach Colleen O'Donnell, and her many stories of past experiences, the season wouldn't have been as successful.

Boys' Tennis

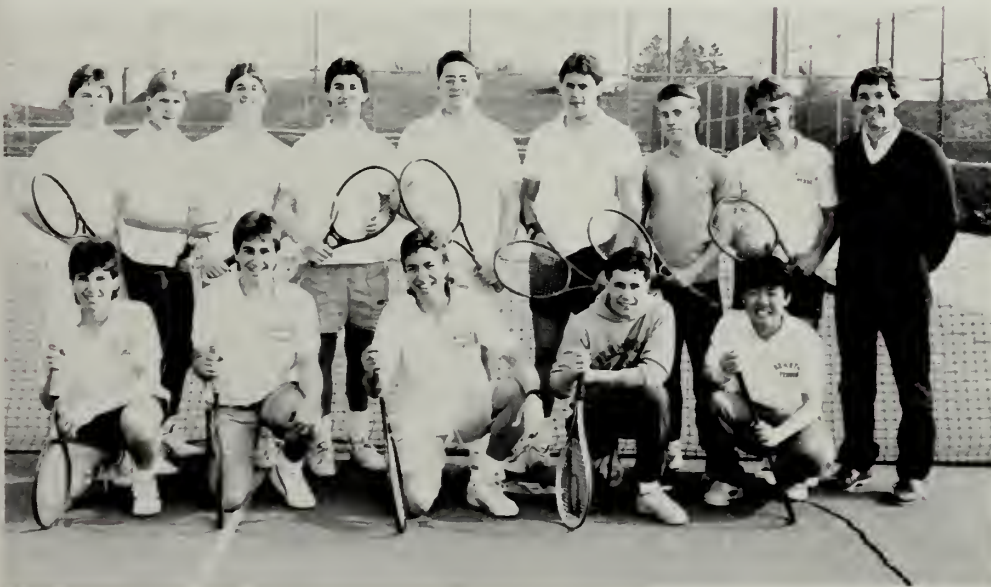

The Brockton High School boys tennis team had a fine season under first year coach Steve Charest. The team finished with a record of 4 and 8, but was improving rapidly by years' end. The team was led by Adam Weene at first singles, Kenny Orloff at second singles and John Donaruma at third singles. The team was also strong at doubles with Joe Lessard and Joe Brandolo at first doubles and Felipe Miguel and Brian Hailey at second doubles. The team learned a great deal from coach Steve Charest. Team captain Joe Brandolo is the only player not returning this season. The team should be further strengthened and improved under new Coach Leonard Miele.

-John Donaruma

roster: coach Steve Charest capt. Joe Brandolo. 1st doubles: Joe Lessard, Joe Brandolo. 2nd doubles: Felipe Miguel, Brian Hailey.

1st singles: Adam Weene. 2nd singles: Kenny Orloff. 3rd singles: John Donaruma. Also: Woo Joo, David Lundberg, Nick Tsarhopoulos, Marc Capiello, Gene Kalp.

Girls' Track And Field

The 1988 Spring Track season was one of the most successful track seasons in recent years. The girls, not only the Suburban League Champions (6-0), but also the Class A State Champions, were exceptionally strong. Stacey Barrows led the team's sprinters. Nancy Dessemeau, Charyl Bavineau, Kristine Moccia, Rhapsody Johnson, Denise Moncy, and Kristin Abisso were also vital point scorers in the sprint races, Jen Healey, Kim Newton, and Sue Schwartz ran to numerous victories in the hurdles. The field events were also in secure hands with New England Champion, Candi Shoemaker. Seniors Andrea Geovanis, Kim Ingalls, Missy Moore, Eileen Murphy along with underclassmen Sue MacDonald, Nancy Reid, and Marjie Dek were all bey distance runners. Although the team was loaded with talent, without the experienced coaching of Jim O'Donnell and Pat Brennan, the season could not have been nearly so successful.

Andrea Geovanis

Outdoor Track

Defeating Cambridge High for the first time in nine years, the Boy's Outdoor Track Team became the new Suburban League Champions in 1988, winning with an impressive undefeated record. Led by Coach Harry Allen, the team also won the State Coaches' Relays and placed second in the Division I Championships. Returning as seniors, the Running Squad consisting of Mario Macrina, Mike Scanlon, Ken Munies, Ken Michaelson, and David Aveni in conjunction with the field team led by Doug Rideout, Scott Smith, Chris Murphy, Mike Robie, Curtis Bostic and Brendon Hayes plans to successfully defend their title. Truly the Outdoor Track Team lived up to its tradition of excellence, and each one of its members deserves to be called a champion.

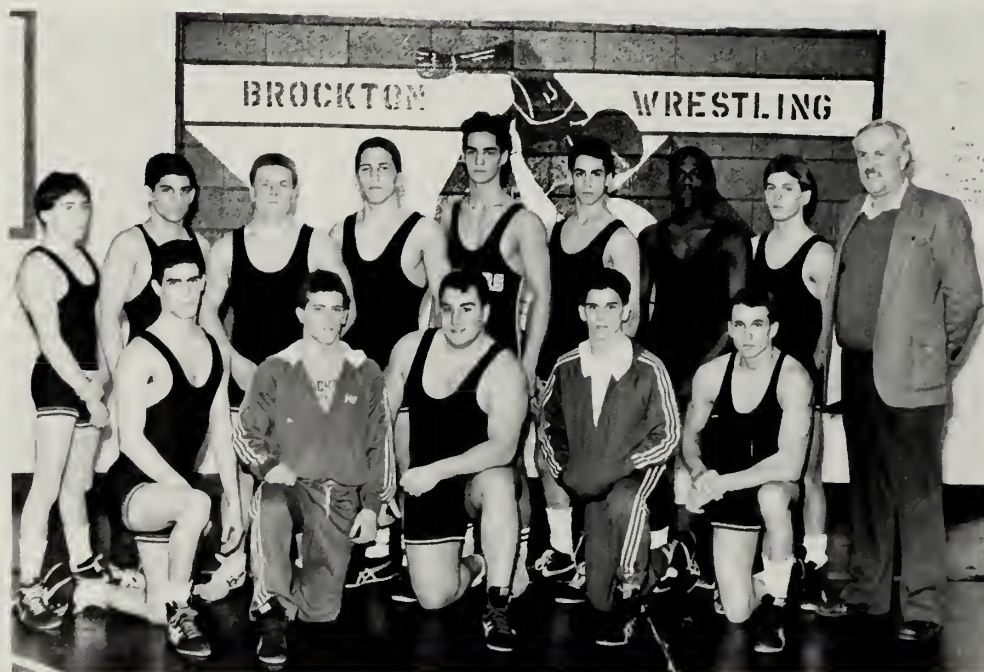

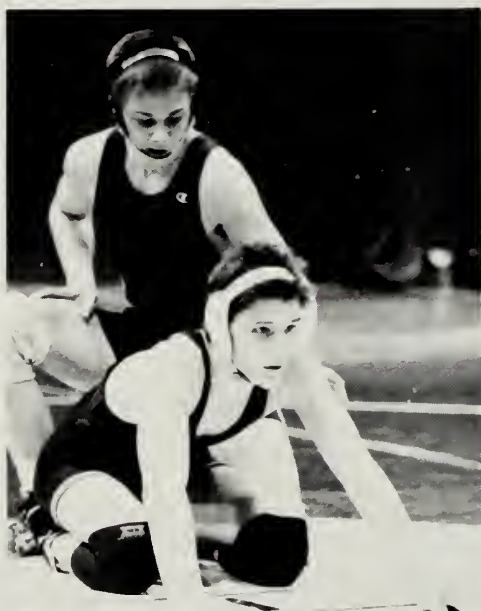

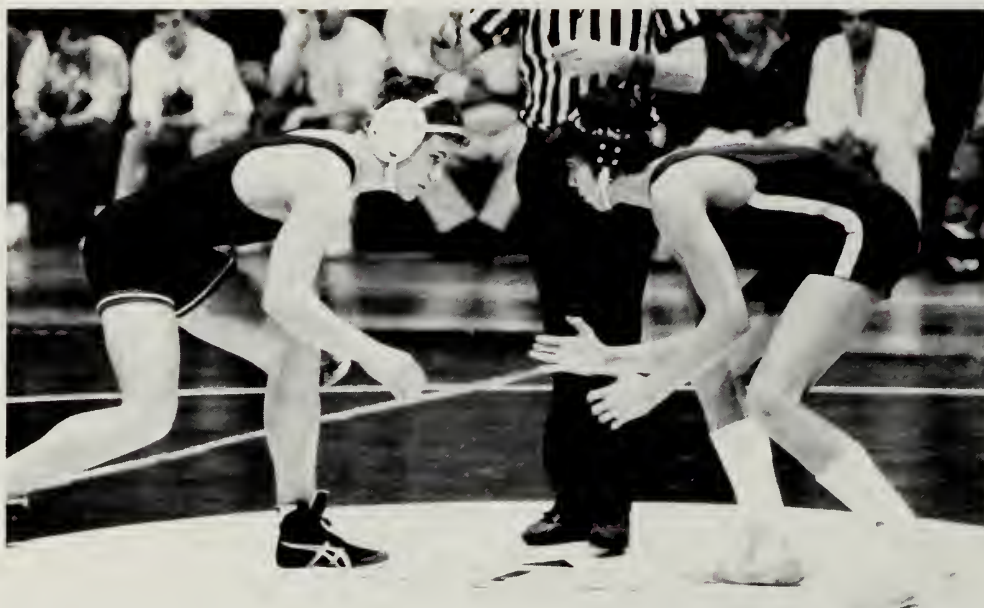

-Peter Keane-

Members include: David Alexis, David Aveni, John Bailey, Joe Ballard, Josh Buckley, Curtis Bostic, Jeff Brown, Mike Budreski, Cliff Canavan, Matt Cavanaugh, Anthony Comen, Robert D'Madid, David Dewitt, Paul D. Wrestling

Tri Captains Eric Tofteroo, Bill McCoy, and Gary George led the Boxer Wrestling team to it's second straight suburban league title. Bill McCoy was undefeated in dual meets and won the South Sectional and state titles. Eric Tofteroo won his second consecutive South Sectional title and placed fourth in Mass. Division one states. Junior Dave D'bona and rookie freshman Leo Mulvey both had impressive seasons. Dave placed first in South Sectional and fourth in the Mass. Division one state and Leo placed first in suburban league tournament and fourth in the South Sectionals.

Tri Captain Gary George came in second in the suburban league and in South Sectionals.

Jerry McCoy also had a good season placing first in suburban league and second in South Sectionals.

The team placed second in the South Sectionals and seventh in the Mass. Division one states.

Junior Prom

The night of April 29, 1988 found Whites Ballroom filled with music, balloons and the members of the class of '89. The night began when the doors opened, revealing an array of sequined and lace dresses and tuxes accessorized with everything from canes to gloves.

Cameras flashed wildly as the DJ prepared everyone to dance the night away. After dinner was served, it wasn't long before the dance floor was filled with couples dancing to music ranging from the fifties up to the present. The prom song, "Never Thought," showed our romantic side as every couple danced the last dance before leaving.

For many who attended, our Prom wasn't the first or the last. However, as a class, it was our only Junior Prom and it created many memories that will be with us all for a long time to come.

Superbowl

Once again The Brockton Boxers had an outstanding season. The 1988 varsity team, led by Captains Darnell Campbell, Rudy Harris, Jay McGillis, Chris Murphy, Michael Thoreson, and Michael Lewis were dedicated to playing the sport with their best efforts.

For a while the Brockton Boxers were ranked number one in the country! They lived up this nation-wide honor and throughout the season, they remained the number one threat on may schedules. The Boxers were a fearsome opponent but their road to the Superbowl was not an easy one. The team continued to work diligently throughout the season as they perfected a defense that was impenetrable and an offense that was unstoppable. The long, hard hours of practice were well worth the effort at "Armond's Army" qualified for the Superbowl.

On December 3, 1988, the Brockton Boxers and their many fans arrived at Sullivan Stadium ready to attack Dedham. The Boxers ran into trouble during the first half as Dedham surprised the team with their onside kickoffs and left the score at 13-0. However, just as Brockton had displayed in their season opener against Rome Free Academy, they showed that they could come back. While the band played "Rocky" in the stands, which seemed to be a sea of red and black, the Boxers stunned Dedham with a devastating attack led by the powerful pair of Rudy Harris and Darnell Campbell. The Brockton defense went to work also and allowed Dedham to score only three more points, leaving them at 16. However, the excitement was not yet over. Although Brockton was leading 20-16, there was still time left on the clock and the Boxers still had some work to do. Soon the team scored another touchdown! The Brockton Boxers played an incredible game in their 27-16 come-from-behind Superbowl victory! Once again, Brockton had proven that their designation in the number one slot was well-deserved for they had returned home from the Superbowl with a victory. Congratulations to our team: Jim Kelleher, William McCoy, Joe D'Amore, Leon Stepherson, Anthony DeGrace, Bobby Toe, Ray Marshall, Richard Wilson, Joe Lessard, and best of luck to Mr. Colombo, and his coaches and players in future Superbowls.

-Maria Luizzi

Close-Up

How much can you learn in one week? Twenty-seven students from the class of 1989 had a chance to answer this question when we were joined by students from Mississippi and Colorado as well as students from other Massachusetts cities to travel to Washington D.C. in March of 1987 and learn "close-up" how our government works.

The students that participated in this program were allowed to sit in on Senate and House hearings to learn more about the government. The six day trip included workshops, tours, and meetings with politicians from every part of the country. A private meeting with our Congressman, Brian Donnelly was also included. The Close-Up participants got a chance to visit the Pentagon, as well as many historical places and monuments. Also on the weeks agenda was a visit to American University and the Department of Treasury for several seminars.

The education, however, did not end with the day. Each night, we returned to our hotel rooms and learned, from our roommates, about life in a different state. On the lighter side, a trip to the zoo, visits to malls, and a whole day in Georgetown made our learning experience more pleasant.

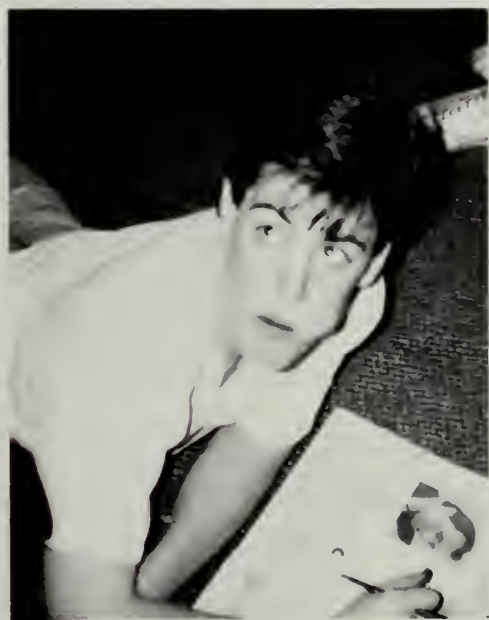

As the week came to an end, nobody wanted to go home; saying goodbye to people we had known only a week, but felt like we had known a lifetime. We realized, that even though the trip was ending, the friendships we had made and the memories that we created would last forever.

As well as the students enthusiasm to learn "Close-Up" about the United States government, it took two teachers to help us live our experience. Besides arousing our interest in this trip, these two teachers had to organize the trip for us. Thank you Mr. Uto and Mr. Walsh for making it possible for us to participate in the Close-Up program.

Semi-Formal

It's Dec. 27, 1988 and a crowd of eager faces wait outside Ridder's Country Club. Suddenly, a car pulls up to the curb and an elegantly dressed couple runs inside amidst the screams of wild fans and the flashes of paparazzi cameras.

"What's going on here? Academy Awards or soemthing'?" asks an ignorant bystander.

"Brockton High Senior Semi-Formal, dude. It's only one of the biggest nights of the year. Exclusive engagement only, though," responds a girl who has just bought two tickets from a scalper standing outside. She runs inside with a scream as the doors close on the festivities within.

If you were there, the Semi-Formal was a night to remember. Whether it was the original choice of wonderful dance music or the delicately prepared gourmet meal, there was something here for everyone. The dance floor was filled with sweaty dancers who would have made John Travolta proud and most people did not leave until the wee hours of the morning. For those who preferred not to succumb to these wild gyrations, there was still a wide assortment of people to gossie with or hang out with. As social events go, the Semi-Formal was a successful night of fun and festivities for all.

Harvey - December Production

The BHS Drama Club opened its 1988-1989 season with the silent footsteps of an invisible rabbit with its production of Mary Chase's immortal classic, "Harvey". This heartwarming and hilarious comedy centered around the delusions and adventures of a lovable inebriate, his harried sister and her desperate daughter, a couple of troubled psychiatrists and their love interests, a short-tempered judge, and an affectionate socialite. The show won many accolades for its universal themes of friendship and family bonds and the cast will long treasure memories of an invisible friend. BRAVO HARVEY!

Wry And Ginger With A Twist - Drama Competition

BHS continued its award winning tradition in the annual Massachusetts High School Drama Festival with this year's competition entry of "Wry and Ginger with a Twist", an original adaptation of the short stories of Manhattan's poet laureate, O. Henry.

This charming comedy centered around the common setting of a late 1800's New York City park and a common character, the affable, confident Heddy Pepper (Nancy Keefe). Each of these witty short stories of life ended in a surprise twist: a proper young woman (Vickie Pratt) swept away from her beautiful command of the English language by the crude street language of her lover's (Adam Weene) courier (Joe Salemi); a busy broker (Chris Koelsch) so wrapped up in his work that he proposes to his stenographer (Nancy Snow) who he has already wed the previous ending; an impressionable shop girl (Tammy Ficsher) who misunderstands her wealthy suitor's (David O'Connor) intentions when he plans to take her abroad; a deceptive young woman (Kristina Nye) who lives out her fantasies by revealing her life story of wealth and refinement to her proletariat admirer (David Costa), each of whom plays the opposite role in life; a compassionate man (German Alfonso) to whom a woman (Bobbi-Lee Lutoff) reveals her grief over her departed lover- a lover who has been the figment of the woman's imagination; a passionate husband (Eric Droukas) who desperately attempts to woo a young woman (Christine O'Keefe) to cook for his family; and finally an acidic daughter (Kristin Abisso) attempts to cool her garrulous father's (Eric McLaughlin) budding relationship with his flighty housekeeper (Kerry Murtagh) and is surprised when her own frozen heart is thawed by the iceman.

With an extensive and elegant set, accurate props and beautiful costumes, "Wry and Ginger with a Twist" was the result of months of collective effort on the part of the entire Drama Club and was truly a production to be proud of.

I Wish You Were Here With Me

Why did you leave when I needed you most?
Now that you're gone I sometimes see and feel your ghost.
Are you really here with me?
Or is all that's left of you a dream?
Sometimes I hear your laughter in the quiet nights.
Or see your smiling face in the stars glistening lights.
Can I leave you behind and forget all that we shared?
No. That would be impossible; I would never dare.
Promise me you'll never forget me.
What we did, hear, and see.
I can close my eyes and remember the times we shared.
Sharing in the joys and sorrows, we knew the other cared.
I wish that I could hold you again.
At least one more time.
To tell you how special you were, one of a kind.

Amy Siegel was one of a kind.
To those who knew her she was as
Beautiful inside as she was outside.

From the Family and Friends of Amy Siegel

THE PERMANENTLY OPPRESSED

Laurie,

May you always be as happy as you are today. Congratulations on your graduation. We love you. You're special to all of us.
Mom, Dad, Michelle, Hugh and Erin

The moment that we've been waiting for has finally arrived - when we are no longer students of Brockton High School, but rather a graduated class peering eagerly at our futures. When we first arrived at Brockton High, our minds wandered through the next four years and wondered what it would be like to graduate. Now we know - all of our dreams, goals and aspirations can be made into realities if we work hard enough for them. Our class proved, from the beginning, how unique and incredibly talented we are, academically, as well as athletically.

During our first two years, we fought to gain individuality as well as a sense of acceptance from each other. After maturing into our third year of high school, our junior year proved to be a good one. We celebrated the fact that we were no longer underclassmen and enjoyed one more year before doing any serious planning that would affect the rest of our lives.

With the autumn of 1988 came the beginning of our senior year along with the realization that this was it: we would soon be graduating and entering an entirely different world. The class of 1989 has grown individually as well as together since 1985 when we first started classes as freshmen. Separately, we have each learned how important it is to believe in what we do and to be true to ourselves, avoiding anything that doesn't seem right. After we developed into individuals with a strong sense of who we were, we began to grow with each other. As a class, we excelled at many things and left a mark never to be erased upon Brockton High School.

Looking back on the past four years, we have benefited from many situations and suffered many losses, some too painful to recall, but from each we've grown and learned. The respect that we have learned for each other as well as ourselves will start us on the road to our future. The timeless memories of our high school years gone by will make it a little easier to travel. Farewell Class of 1989 and may all of your dreams come true!
